ViRUTE Bay

1. Rival spies V-SPY and V-CAMO share information of CRiTOPiA districts with QUEEN CREATOPHAGE and ViRAL PUP. Unsure of who to call, CREATOPHAGE announces to the Bay that the first three ViRUSES to arrive at her throne room will be assigned a mission. V-M4A and V-GULP race neck-to-neck but are engulfed in a fight cloud, enacted by a trio of ViRUSES, V-A (quick and tough), V-B (aggressive and rough), and V-C (timid and crafty). They hop out of the cloud and high-five.

2. Impressed, CREATOPHAGE assigns them a mission: split up and infect a CRiTORA in their assigned districts. V-A and V-B are excited, but V-C is confused. They are sent away, hopping on their motor-powered dinghy and sneaking through the sewers of CRiTOPiA. CREATOPHAGE hopes the trio make it out okay.

Art District

1. V-C notices RIZZO WACKOLAND playing king in a mountain of chairs and annoying others. Its files warn to avoid RIZZO at all costs. Wanting to impress CREATOPHAGE but not wanting to get close to RIZZO, V-C grabs a purple crayon and draws up a fortress tower, taking down RIZZO'S chairs with a cannon.

2. RIZZO confronts V-C, only to have an anvil dropped next to him. In return, RIZZO throws the anvil back to the V-C, crushing it, and starts walking up the tower. V-C shoots cannonballs at him, only for RIZZO to juggle them. By the time he made it up with nachos to share, V-C drew himself a sword, shield, and a Viking helmet.

3. RIZZO and V-C engage in a duel, with RIZZO tossing his nachos like ninja stars and messing around with his extra limbs, and V-C drawing up things like a net and a launchpad for its advantage. The other CRiTORA witnessed it from afar and felt the need to help RIZZO out.

4. V-C eventually stuns RIZZO and just as it's preparing to infect him, the other CRiTORA lights dynamite on the tower, launching it in the air and flipping it toward the ground. RIZZO steps himself out while the tower crashes with V-C.

ACT 2

Food District

1. V-B climbs up the Colossal Cone, a giant charcuterie cone planted on the Lava Cake Mountains with giant food. Its files suggest infecting its resident and GUARDiAN, SCOOPS CORNUCRAB, as they're usually cooped inside. Arriving on a ledge, V-B noticed POTATO CHIPCHEEK calling for SCOOPS about food. Furious, V-B approaches POTATO while he throws food in fear, to no avail. V-B uppercuts POTATO, launching him through the Cone during his infection and creating a hole. When SCOOPS came outside, a food avalanche launched out of the hole, burying SCOOPS and V-B.

2. V-B swims through it, searching for SCOOPS. Suddenly, V-POTATO arrives, riding on a large rolled wafer and eating large candy corn. Disturbed, V-B throws food at V-POTATO, who punches them away. He even crushes one of them to bits. Eventually, he does a 360 on his wafer, knocking V-B away.

3. Soon, SCOOPS arrives next to V-POTATO on peppermint. V-POTATO tries throwing food at them, but SCOOPS block them, sending them up in the air and distracting V-POTATO. While he looked up, little SCOOPS lifted hunk V-POTATO and swerved the wafer away from the thrown food, disinfecting him offscreen. Meanwhile, V-B lands on the side of a gummy tree and launches back into the avalanche, grasping onto the peppermint.

4. To its shock, SCOOPS and a disinfected POTATO confront V-B, riding on the wafer and ready to fight back. SCOOPS uses POTATO like a machine gun, shooting candy corn he had eaten earlier at V-B, and destroying its peppermint. In a literal turn of events, V-B lands on their wafer, making it spin and causing SCOOPS to lose grip on POTATO, who then tailspins V-B away. The food spill settles, with POTATO and the residents taking in on the giant treats while SCOOPS frets about how the Garden District will react.

Toy District

1. V-A arrives underneath the front float of a giant balloon parade, surrounded by smaller balloon LiFEFORMS and some watching CRiTORA. V-A hops through the crowd, infecting FIZZ ROCKYPOP, BRYAN TWISTS, and ROBERT BUBBIDUC in quick succession. However, they are immediately recovered by MING-MING LIGHT and GOLDIE MIDAS with their DiSiNFECTANT and chase after V-A on top of giant balloons.

2. V-A manages to infect GOLDIE and tosses the DiSiNFECTANT away, prompting MING-MING to run away from V-GOLDIE and V-A on top of more balloons while the witnessing CRiTORA fetches the DiSiNFECTANT to ROBERT, recovering GOLDIE back to normal.

3. With the two back together, they chase after the frightened V-A.
